“8(a) SMALL DISADVANTAGED BUSINESS CERTIFICATION AWARDED TO CAVANAGH SERVICES GROUP, INC.”

Cavanagh Services Group, Inc. is pleased to announce that it is now a certified 8(a) Small Disadvantaged Business by the US Small Business Administration (SBA). As an existing Woman-Owned, HUBZone small business, Cavanagh Services Group, Inc. welcomes this 8(a) classification as an additional means of improving its competitive edge in the waste transportation services marketplace. Through its cost-effective and value-adding services to the Department of Energy (DOE), Department of Defense (DOD), Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and commercial projects, Cavanagh will be better positioned to support government contractors in meeting small business goals. Over the past few years, Cavanagh has demonstrated its commitment to quality and focus on getting the work done right the first time.

“Cavanagh Services Group has a lot of potential and the 8(a) certification helps keep us on the right track to realizing that potential,” stated Susan P. Rice, President of Cavanagh Services Group, Inc. and recent recipient of the SBA 2005 Utah Small Business Person of the Year Award. With its successful history, Cavanagh Services Group, Inc. is amply equipped with the necessary tools, knowledge and experience to provide transportation related services to government and commercial projects both efficiently and economically. Cavanagh’s services include equipment leasing, packaging, truck and rail transportation, disposal, and related waste management services. “We can do the job safely and efficiently at competitive rates, we just want the opportunity,” Sue Rice said regarding the new certification.
