“CAVANAGH SERVICES GROUP HIGHLIGHTED AS DOE SUCCESS STORY IN 2005 REPORT TO THE SECRETARY OF ENERGY”

The “2005 Report to the Secretary of Energy” prepared by the Office of Economic Impact & Diversity Office of Small & Disadvantaged Business Utilization documents activities and achievements in the U.S. Department of Energy’s Small Business Programs during the fiscal year and highlights small business participation. Cavanagh Services Group, Inc. was one of six small business success stories featured in the report. The companies selected were chosen because of their superior performance and outstanding contribution to the Department Of Energy (‘DOE’) mission.

Cavanagh Services Group, Inc. has supported over twenty different DOE cleanup projects including Los Alamos National Laboratory, Idaho Advanced Mixed Waste Treatment Project, Brookhaven National Laboratory, as well as the following four site closure projects: Rocky Flats Closure (Golden, CO); Mound Closure (Miamisburg, OH); Oak Ridge Closure (Oak Ridge, TN) and Columbus Closure (Columbus, OH). Cavanagh was recently selected by BWXT Y-12 to support the DOE Y12 Plant Disposition of Low Level Waste.

Cavanagh Services Group is an SBA certified 8(a)/Small Disadvantaged Business, HUBZone, Woman-owned small business based in Salt Lake City, Utah. In addition to extensive DOE support experience, Cavanagh also has project experience with DoD, EPA and the commercial industry. Cavanagh’s key business focus is providing cost saving and efficient packaging, transportation and project support services for the environmental cleanup industry. “We’re proud of this recognition as a successful entity by the DOE as it acknowledges small businesses are capable of safely supporting important cleanup work.” stated Susan P. Rice, President of Cavanagh Services Group. She also added, “At Cavanagh, we are committed to ensuring that our customers utilize the safest and most economical resources out there to complete their projects”. Ms. Rice just received the Office Depot 2006 Businesswoman of the Year Award this month. Other awards include the U.S. SBA “Utah Small Business Person of the Year” and the MountainWest Capital Network “2005 Emerging Elite” award.
