FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“CAVANAGH CERTIFIED WOMEN-OWNED SMALL BUSINESS UNDER SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM”

Salt Lake City, Utah – June 1, 2011 – Cavanagh Services Group, Inc. (Cavanagh) is pleased to announce its official certification under the Small Business Administration’s (SBA) new Federal Contract Program as a Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB).

Cavanagh, founded in 2002 by Susan Rice, has always been woman-owned and a small business supporting government and commercial customers. This new program offers an actual certification and for the first time authorizes contracting officers to set aside certain federal contracts for eligible women-owned small businesses. The program was implemented by the SBA on Feb. 4, 2011 and was created to ensure women-owned small business concerns have an equal opportunity to participate in Federal contracting and to assist agencies in achieving their WOSB participation goals.

Cavanagh is also certified by the SBA as a section 8(a), Small Disadvantaged Business, a program that allows contracting officers to sole-source and set aside federal contracts to companies that have received the certification. The new WOSB program will be similar, in that certain types of work can be set aside to allow only qualified and certified WOSBs to participate in the procurement.

Sue Rice, Founder and President of Cavanagh commented, “I’m very pleased with the creation and implementation of this official contracts program. SBA has created a vehicle that customers can utilize to help them meet their WOSB contracting goals. As a woman-owned business, we appreciate this tool to help us compete with the large businesses and prove our ability to provide our customers with exceptional quality service and products.”
