EnergySolutions Enters Into A Mentor/Protégé Agreement With Cavanagh Services Group, Inc.

Agreement Supports the Small Business Community

Salt Lake City, Utah – June 27, 2006 – EnergySolutions, a nuclear services company shows strong support for small business by entering into a Mentor/Protégé Agreement with Cavanagh Services, Inc., a small disadvantaged business.

The United States Small Business Administration (“SBA”) has approved EnergySolutions to act as a mentor to enhance the development of its protégé, Cavanagh Services Group. SBA established the Mentor/Protégé Program to provide small disadvantaged businesses the opportunity to learn and grow under the guidance of large businesses. EnergySolutions will help Cavanagh develop its company through technical, managerial, financial, and/or subcontracting assistance under the official SBA program.

“EnergySolutions is proud to be a mentor to Cavanagh Services Group,” said Steve Creamer, President and CEO of EnergySolutions. “We know Cavanagh Services Group is a viable small business with great potential and we look forward to working with them as they build their company.”

Cavanagh Services Group provides packaging, transportation, and project support services to the environmental remediation industry.

“This is a significant milestone for our company. EnergySolutions truly believes in the value of small business and we are thrilled with the opportunity to work closely with such a worldwide, experienced company,” said Sue Rice, President of Cavanagh Services Group. “Cavanagh will continue to strengthen its abilities and become a more viable company as a result of this relationship,” added Rice.

The Mentor/Protégé Agreement also allows for the mentor and protégé to team and bid on small business contracts within the federal government.
